FOREWORD

The Acorn is ready to sail on her annual voyage through the sea of memories of our school year. The storms have subsided and all that remain are the calms of fond reminiscences of happy days and events. For some of the crew, the ship is setting out to sea, but for others, it is coming into port. We hope this log of events will be a treasure of memories for you in years to come. And now — FULL SPEED AHEAD!

ALAMEDA HIGH SCHOOL

DONALD DYER LUM, M.D.

DEDICATION

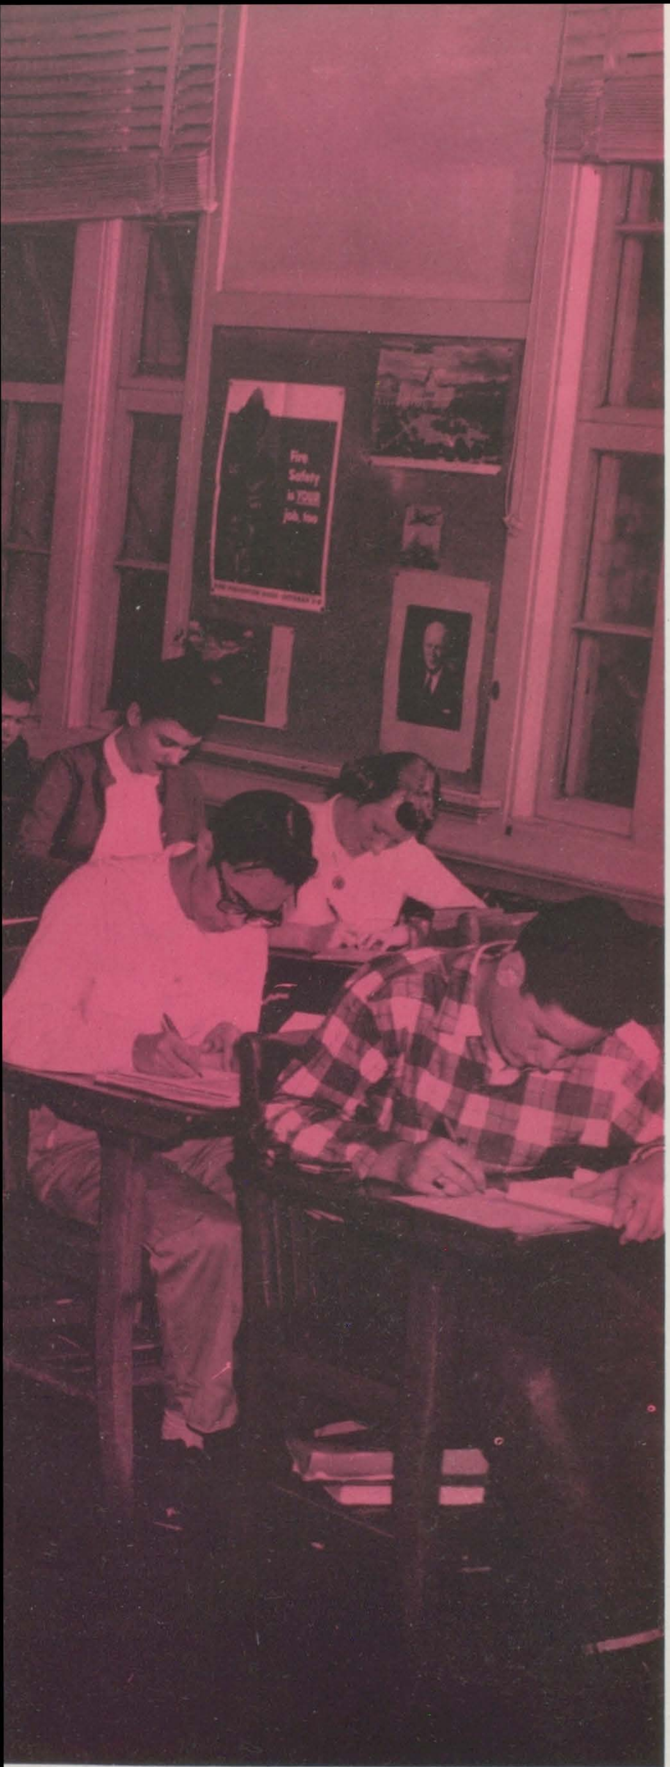
The students of Alameda High School respectfully dedicate this Annual to Donald Dyer Lum, M.D., who has served the citizens of Alameda with distinction as a member of the Board of Education since 1933 and as its President since 1939.

A product of the Alameda schools himself, Dr. Lum has given unstintingly of his time and effort to public education in this community.

During the war and post war years when the schools were experiencing their most rapid growth in history and when the services of a physician were in constant demand, Dr. Lum's interest in the school department has neither wavered nor waned.

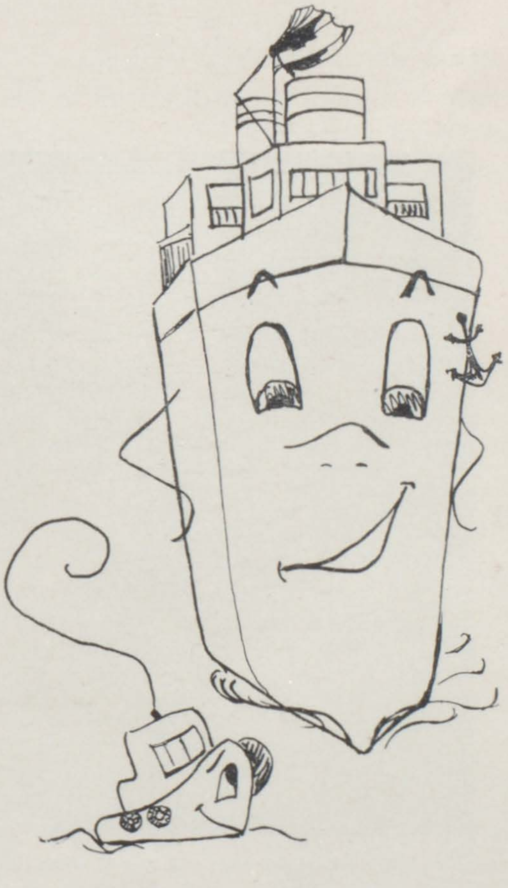
Alameda's reputation for its outstanding school department can, in a large measure, be attributed to the exemplary leadership which Dr. Lum has given to the Board of Education. The many decisions which he has been called upon to make over the past twenty-two years have always reflected a sincere and wholehearted interest in the youth of Alameda.

We, the students of Alameda High School, wish to express our deep gratitude to Dr. Lum for the part he has played in providing us with the opportunity for a good education.



Fire Safety is YOUR job, too

DEPARTMENTS



The school day begins at 8:42 a.m. for most students when the first bell rings and students hurry to their advisories to hear the morning bulletin and receive other information concerning school affairs.

The school day ends at 3:15 p.m. when classroom doors open wide and happy students pour out into the hallways. Some participate in extra-curricular activities, while others go their separate ways toward home.

Board Of Education Maintains Good Schools

DR. DONALD M. RODERICK, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

The city of Alameda has long been noted throughout California for the excellence of its school system. This fine record is a direct result of the tireless effort and forward thinking of our Board of Education and the very able leadership of Dr. Roderick. The community has great confidence in the Board's judgment, as illustrated by the passage of many school bond issues. Students of Alameda High School can justly be proud of their school and the educational opportunities which are provided by the Board.

MR. J. M. BRYAN, Principal

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Many of our present students in Alameda High School plan to go on to college after completing the work here. Those of you who do plan to go to college must take a pre-college course in high school and must make A's and B's. It is also most important that you do not slow down in the senior year. There has been a tendency among some students to try to complete most of the difficult courses by the end of the junior year so that the senior year may be a time of fun and relaxation. Directors of Admissions throughout the country place great stress on the type of program taken in the senior year of high school and also upon the quality of work done in that year. Since competition among students to get into good colleges is so keen, I would urge you to do your best work in the senior year.

Another quality that has tremendous importance in the success of a college student is the ability to read well. A college student must be able to read with speed and comprehension and to have a well rounded vocabulary. The best way to learn to read well is to read many books of varying difficulty and to make the dictionary a habit so that unknown words will become a part of the individual's expanding vocabulary.

Recently we have received reports of our students from Stanford University, from the University of California, and from many other universities. At Stanford University, our first year students made an average of 2.80, which is almost a B average. Our students were among the highest 10% of the first year students there. At the University of California, the average of our students was well above the average of large high schools in California. Our record at other schools has also been excellent.

To Mr. Hallock, faculty adviser; Nancy English, editor; Jerry Boone, business manager; and to the Acorn Staff, I wish to express my sincere thanks for the many long hours you have devoted to the production of the 1955 Acorn.

And Guide Us With Friendly Understanding

DONALD J. BELL

Mr. Donald J. Bell, Vice-Principal

Mr. Bryan and his fine assistants are never too busy with their many administrative duties to help students in every possible way. Not only do they give friendly advice, but also they act as advisors to various school organizations, such as the board of control, the auditorium staff, and the courtesy board. With the very capable leadership of these fine, outstanding people and our excellent teaching staff, we are assured of a happy and successful voyage through high school.

A panel discussion on the subject of "going steady" prompts a spirited exchange of ideas in an English class.

English Is The Key To Better Communication

One of the most important factors in modern living is communicating with other people. The essentials of communication include being able to express one's self clearly and correctly in speaking and in writing. Many opportunities are open to those who have the ability to say what they mean and also know how to say it. Our English and public speaking classes strive to cultivate these talents.

BACK ROW—Mr. Morris Winer (French), Miss Harriet Paul (French).

ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Mrs. Maria Tays (Spanish), Mr. Earnest Ellis (Basic).

Grammar and pronunciation are certainly basic, important things to be learned in foreign languages. But to fully appreciate the languages, a study of the lands in which they are spoken is necessary. This study includes learning about the people in these lands and their way of living. The three languages taught at Alameda High School are Spanish, French, and Latin.

Posters of France and its people, their customs and culture, are studied in a French Class.

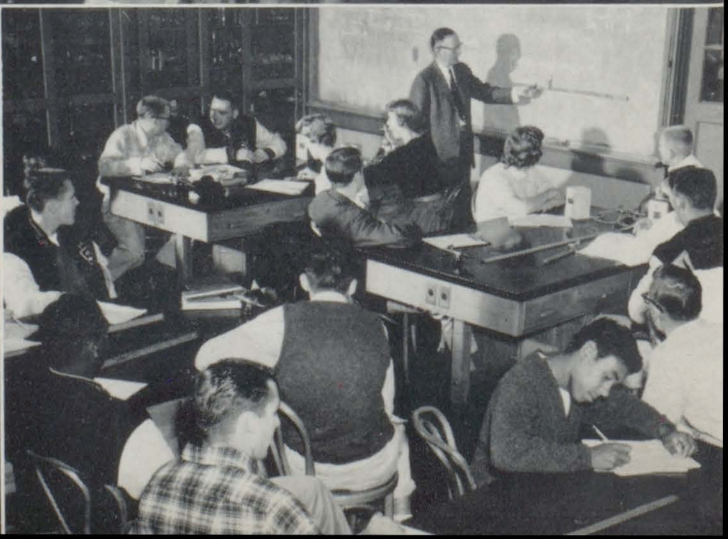
ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Mr. James Hull (Science, Biology).

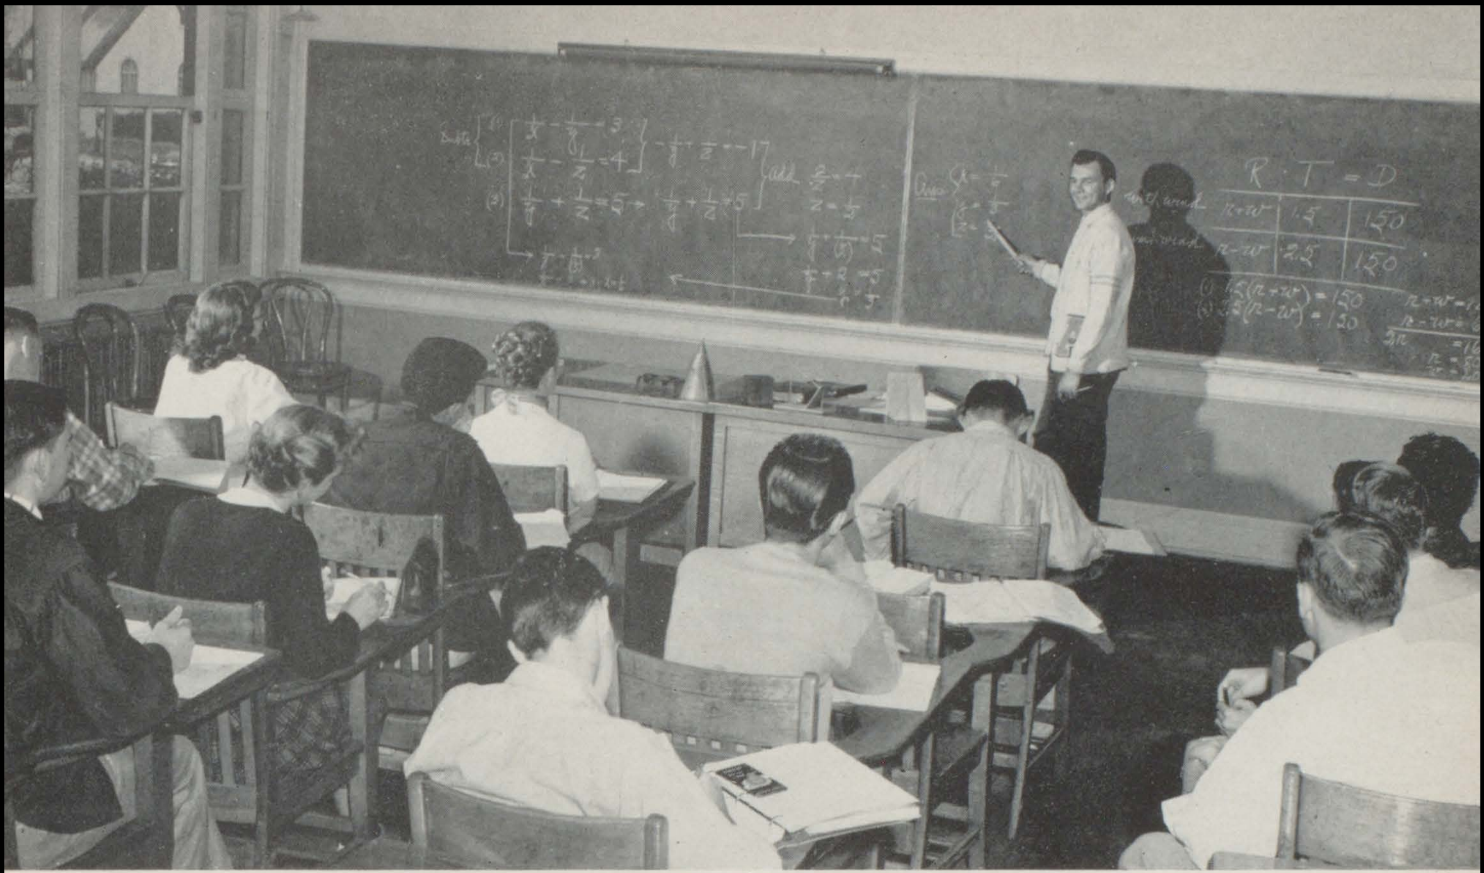
Knowledge and curiosity are equally necessary when working in the sciences. One of the main purposes of high school science courses, such as general science, biology, physics, physiology, and chemistry, is to excite students' imaginations to continued scientific study.

Root structure is found to be very interesting by students in a biology class.

Electrolysis of water is the experiment being conducted in a chemistry class; lab work is an important part of the course.



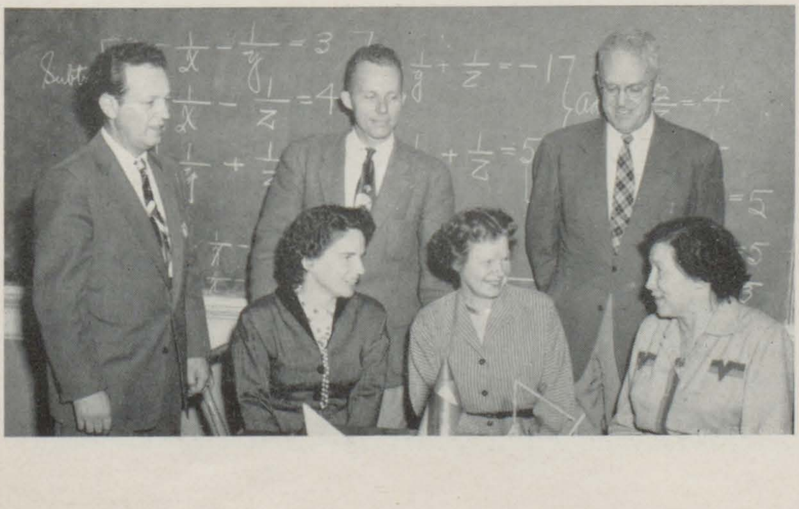
Previous to a physics experiment, an explanation of the method of measuring the focal point of lenses is given.



Systems of equations are studied by an advanced algebra class.

Mathematics Is A Very Practical Subject

Some students consider mathematics to be challenging and enjoyable while others are lost in a maze of equations, triangles, logarithms. However, math has a practical value for everyone. It develops the ability to think logically and thoroughly. Knowledge of the basic principles of math is helpful in many situations from going shopping to making out income tax forms.



MATH DEPARTMENT

ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Miss Ruth Hays.

The study of government and politics in civics classes often leads to interesting and heated discussions.

In History Previous Experiences Are Our Guides

The importance of history and its study may be illustrated in many ways. For instance historical facts are often the guides for present day action. Interest in our country and its rich history is promoted in such courses as United States History and California History. Respect for our government and its organization is gained in government and politics, or civics classes.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Miss Grace Powers.

Some girls prepare a recipe while others set the table, since the students not only cook the food but also eat it.

Home Economics Provides Guidance For Homes

Preparatory guidance for future homemakers and the essentials of good housekeeping are stressed in home economics courses. Cooking and sewing classes are very popular with students. Many girls in the sewing classes are asked to model their creations for the Girls' Association fashion show. Two other subjects that have a practical value and are very interesting are Home Management and Homemaking.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

Commercial Arts Train For The Business World

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

FRONT ROW—Mrs. Virginia Anderson (machine cal.), Miss Sara Patty (steno., typing), Mrs. Marcella Lauck (office practice), Mrs. Josephine Van Ogtrop (typing).

BACK ROW—Mr. Lee Jackson (dictation, transcription, steno.), Mr. Earl Fraley (typing), Mr. Einar Sorensen (accounting).

For those students who are particularly interested in going into some phase of business, commercial courses are valuable training. Typing is useful to almost everyone at college or in jobs. Office practice, accounting, and machine calculation are especially designed for future office workers. The office practice class offers a chance to experience actual office work, which includes mimeographing and dictation.

A great deal of the typing and mimeographing needed for the school's program is prepared in office practice classes.

Vocational Arts Train For Work And Hobbies

VOCATIONAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Mr. Chris Freeman (industrial arts), Mr. Lloyd Hopkins (industrial arts), Mr. Gordon Watt (wood shop).

For those who have talents in the Manual arts, the courses which are offered by the vocational arts department are ideal. To some they serve as a chance to work on hobbies while to others the subjects are training for life vocations. Courses include industrial arts, wood, electric, auto, machine, and radio shops.

Many of the articles which the boys make in wood shop will help to furnish their homes or will be presents to parents or friends.

The advanced orchestra performs a fine service to the school by playing for many of the school activities, such as senior plays.

Through Music, Art, And Drama We Can Express

The fine arts offer many opportunities for self expression and creativity. Some of these opportunities are: the Christmas Pageant and other dramatic presentations, music festivals and the operetta, and art exhibitions which include pottery, leather articles, paintings, and drawings. These activities combined with study of the arts help students to appreciate and better understand Music, Art, and Drama.

ART, MUSIC, AND DRAMA DEPARTMENT

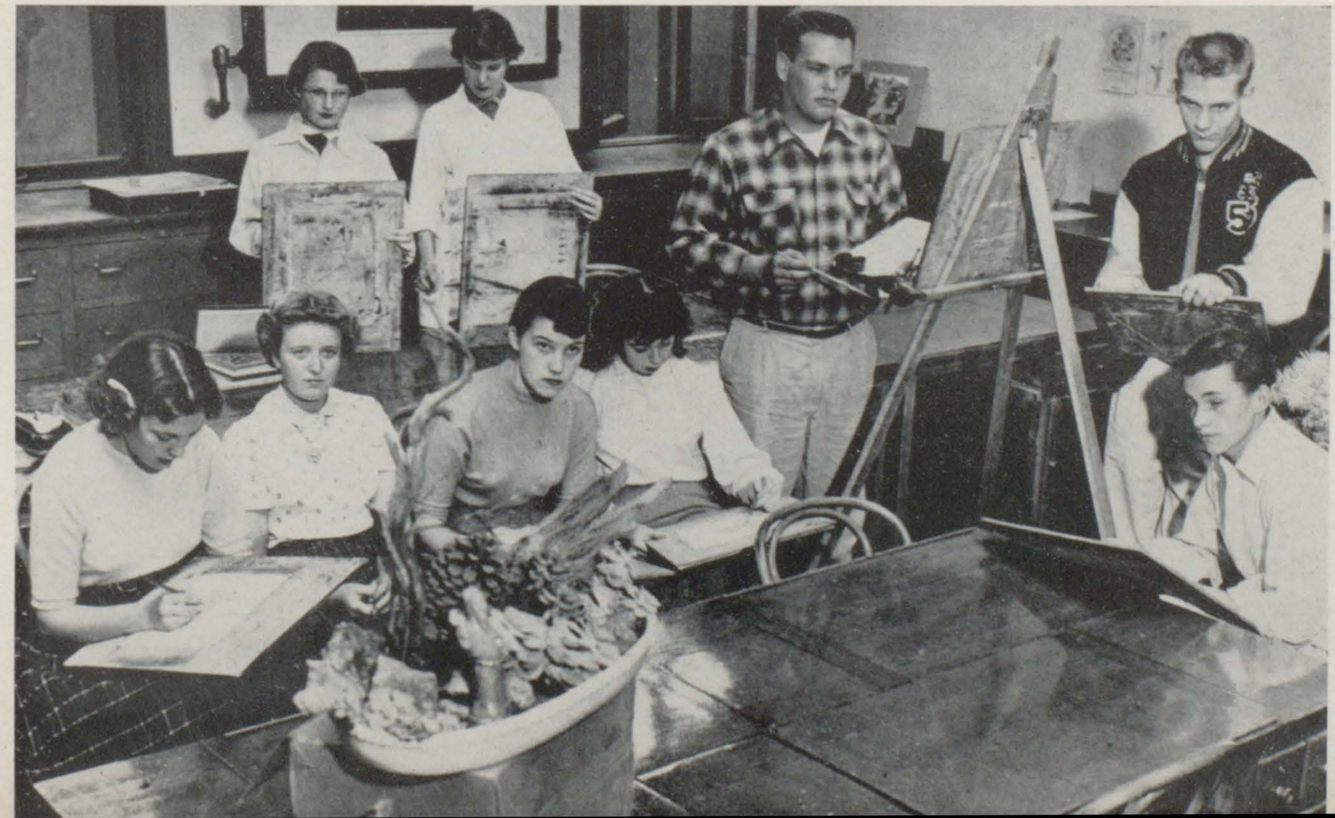
BACK ROW—Mr. Lloyd Sisler (drama), Mrs. Edna Reichmuth (art), Mr. Raymond Vidler (band), Mr. Carlton Hanson (orchestra).

ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Mrs. Dorothy Layton (art, pottery).

Drama students rehearse lines and study parts for plays which will be presented at a later date. Alameda High is noted for its excellent dramatic performances.

Individuality And Develop The Ability To Create

Art students in a figure and oils class make sketches of a still life arrangement. Some very fine work is done in the various art classes, including pottery, leather.



Speed-a-way, a variation of soccer, is a very active sport which requires skill and a great deal of teamwork.

Teamwork And Responsibility Are Learned And

n the correction room good posture is established by exercises and constant practice.

Touch football is an exciting sport and very popular with the boys in physical education.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

FRONT ROW—Mrs. Myrtle McKenna (Chairman of girls' P.E.), Miss Edith Carpenter, Mrs. Oeloel Braun, Mrs. Freda Kympton.

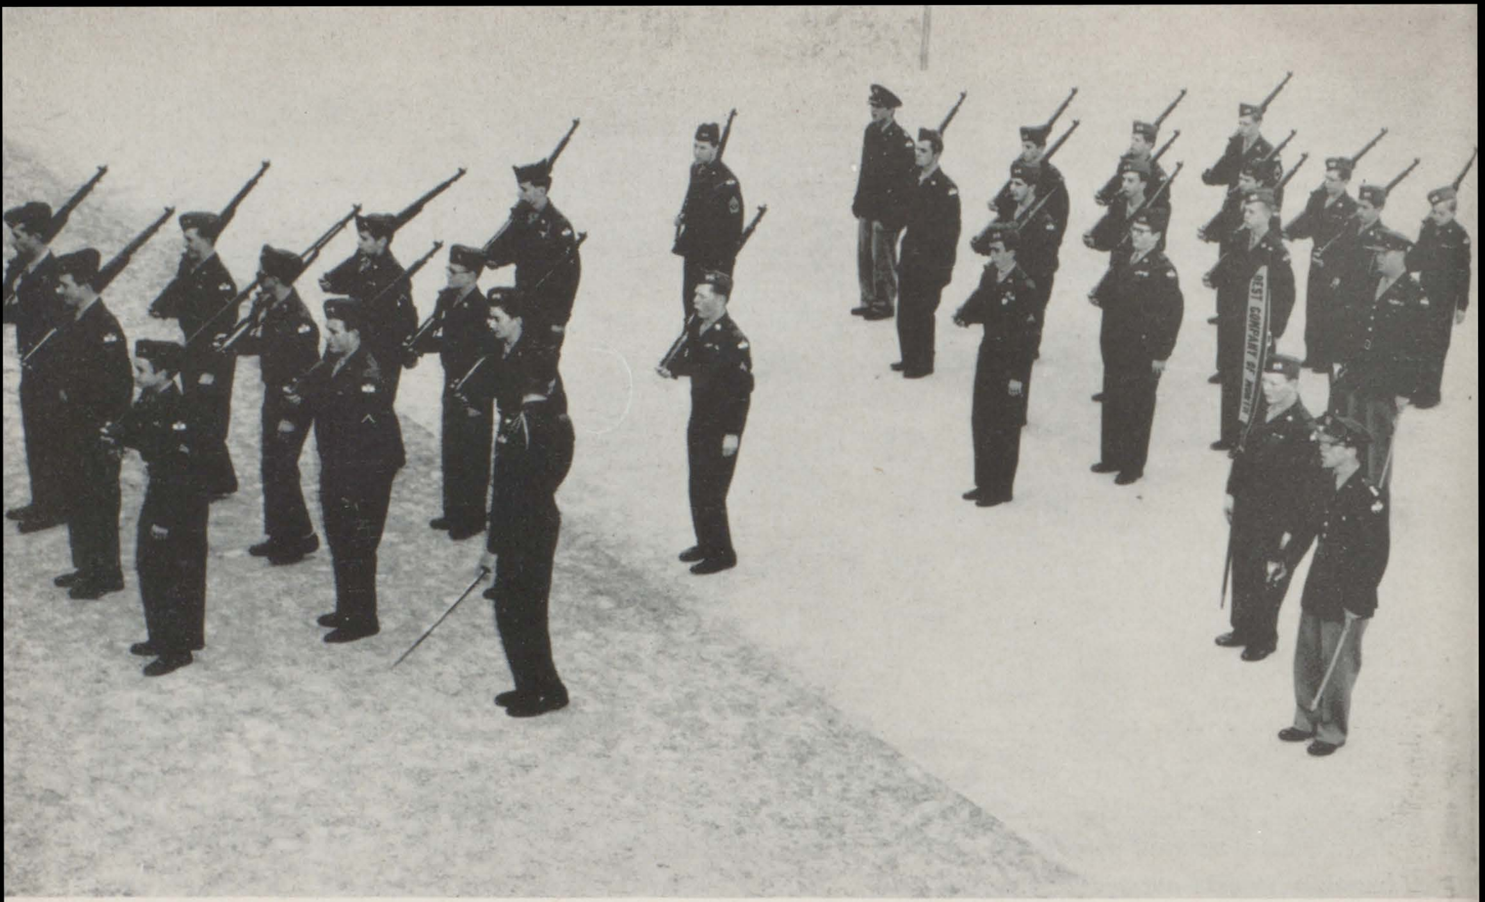
ABSENT FROM PICTURE—Mrs. Jeane Ellis, Mr. Lewis Jolley (Chairman of boys P.E.).

Physical fitness and health education are stressed in the physical education department. The kinds of sports which are played help to develop cooperation and a sense of responsibility. The importance of good health is brought out by the study of several courses which are taken once every term for three weeks. These include hygiene, in which we learn many interesting factors about physical and mental health, and first aid, in which fundamentals of emergency treatment of a sick or injured person are taught.

Good Health Is Promoted In Physical Education

Another popular game and one that is very fast-moving is basketball. Action at the backboards is always exciting.



Company "B" was judged to be the best company in the Alameda R.O.T.C. battalion.

R.O.T.C. Is A Foundation Of National Defense

Since the days of the Revolution the United States has relied upon her civilian-soldier in time of need. Today's reservist is no different than the minuteman of 1775 except that he is better trained. The greatest source of these trained patriots has been schools like Alameda High School which maintain ROTC units. Alameda's battalion is not only one of the oldest in the Bay Area, it is one of the best, having won the Army's "Honor Unit" rating for over 16 years.

The 60 millimeter mortar and the bazooka are pieces in the R.O.T.C. armory which command a great deal of interest by students.

R.O.T.C. students take great pride in their drill formations. Each squad is put through a rigorous training in the manual of arms.

The use and nomenclature of the Browning automatic rifle, the army carbine, and the M1 rifle are an important part of R.O.T.C. instruction.

Inspection of ranks by Regular Army instructors at frequent intervals is a regular procedure in evaluating the progress of each R.O.T.C. student.

A student is advised in a helpful way when she asks Miss Shockey, a counselor, about the prospect of attending a state university.

Counselor's services include giving advice concerning school and study problems, social problems, college entrance information, scholarships, and vocations. It is their function to help students understand themselves and their opportunities so that they may be able to find a worthy place in society. The continuation school offers many people an opportunity to gain a high school diploma while they are working in their jobs.

Mr. Chet Millett, Job placement advisor, is questioned by a student as to what job opportunities are open during the summer vacation.

With the help of the librarian and the student librarians, students may find many different kinds of books to meet almost every need.

Three important services are: the library facilities—for reference work or reading enjoyment the library has an adequate supply of books; the course in driver training—a new course last fall, it is taken by many students who learn to drive safely and correctly; the services of the school nurse—these are valuable and necessary for the health and welfare of students.

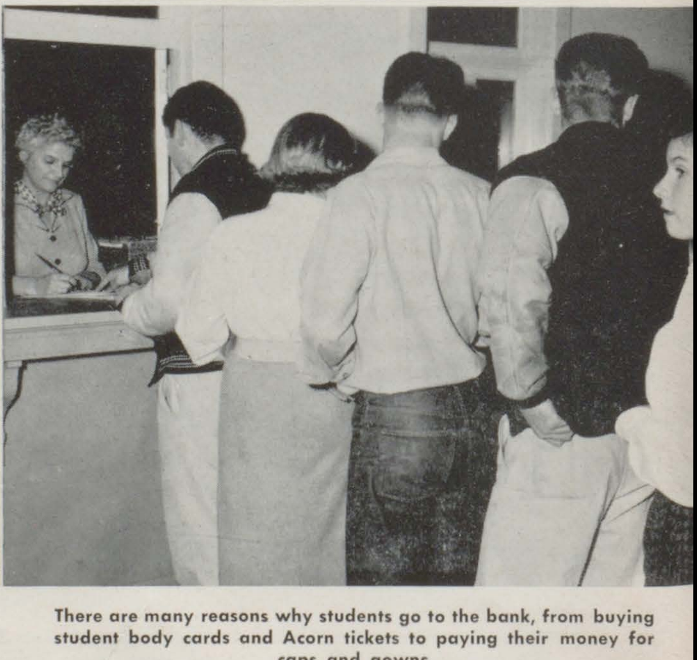
The clerks and office workers who are employed at Alameda High not only are capable and efficient but also are friendly and helpful. The attendance office keeps a close account of absences. Textbooks and their care are the concerns of the textbook clerk. The bank is always a busy place, where most of the school's financial business is conducted.

Students who have been absent check in at the attendance office before reporting back to their classes. Most of the excuses are valid.

Mrs. Arfsten and her student assistants are anxious to keep the school's textbook supply in good order, since hundreds of books are checked out each week.



There are many reasons why students go to the bank, from buying student body cards and Acorn tickets to paying their money for caps and gowns.

Painting the classrooms in Alameda High has been a major maintenance project the last few years, and one which is greatly appreciated by faculty and students.

The maintenance staff, under the head custodian, Al Lorenzana, performs many services for our school, some of which many students never see. Keeping the school clean and orderly is a continuous and time-consuming job. They keep the grounds beautiful, and repair school equipment and furniture. Other services are offered by the laundry staff and the stage crew.

The most popular place in school at noontime is the cafeteria where a delicious meal can be obtained at a low cost.

In the morning the cafeteria is a gathering place for students, who talk over a cup of hot chocolate or finish their homework.

A very successful term was enjoyed by the fall term's student body cabinet. All of the officers performed their duties very well. Part of the job of the officers is to represent the school at various activities. LeRoy Velasquez, recording secretary, represented Alameda High talent twice. Marv Newell and Carole Moody attended the East Bay Safety Council, where Mrs. Priest, Treasurer of the United States, was the speaker. Also, the cabinet explained the duties of their offices at a dinner given by the P.T.A.

Rich Canepa, acting for Joan Girdwood who was absent, carries out the tradition between vice-presidents and kisses Carole Moody, while Marv Newell waits to accept the presidency of the student body.

Fall Student Governing Boards Serve Well

Obtaining and approving entertainment for Student Body meetings is the main duty of the Student-Faculty Committee. After entertainment is presented, the committee evaluates it by students' opinions. In this way future programs may be improved. Some excellent programs were enjoyed during the fall term, including the Sixth Army Band, with its bagpipe corps and an instrumental group from San Francisco State.

As the main representative body of our school the Administrative Board conducts a great deal of the business of Alameda High students, including the allotment of student body funds for organizations and such things as the gold footballs for our championship team. Wayne Floyd was elected Speaker of the Ad Board, and Carole Moody and Marvin Newell were manager and co-manager of the opening dance "Opening Nite."

The students who are members of the Boards of Control serve as examples for the rest of the Student Body. One of their purposes is to help students develop a respect for Alameda High, and a sense of responsibility in obeying the rules which are set up. Those who do not follow these rules are called down before the boards and given some type of penalty which is designed to help the student respect the rules. Maintaining order at the football games was a major project in the fall term. Ginger Waterlow and Dick Childs were elected Chief Counselors of their respective boards. The ties chosen by the Women's Board of Control were gold and white checked, which matched the colors of the boys' hats.

The leaders of Alameda High's student body for the spring term served the students in an excellent manner. One of the highlights of the term for the cabinet was the meeting at our school of the Student East Bay Safety Council. Also the officers attended a convention in El Cerrito, along with other student body officers from this region. Discussions revealed the facts that we alone have student rates and 100% student dues, as well as having a larger budget and lower-priced student cards than other high schools.

Board And Student-Faculty Have Busy Term

The Student-Faculty Committee met each Monday noon during the spring term to discuss the entertainment for the student body meetings. Entertainment which was well received by the students included an act by Souza, who claimed to be a prestidigitator, and a program by the school instrumental and choral departments of music.

One of the duties of the Administrative Board is to vote on who should get block letters in the various sports. With Dan Lubbock, a high junior, as Speaker, the spring term Ad Board performed its duties very well. The opening dance, "Hi Time," was presented with Joan Girdwood acting as co-manager and Bert Estes as manager.

Out of the one hundred to one hundred and fifty students who sign up for both Boards of Control, only 24 girls and 24 boys are chosen. After the Ad Board votes on the candidates, the original list goes to a special student-faculty committee where final selections are made. At the end of a term potluck dinners are held by both boards at the homes of Mrs. Hoeksema, advisor for the Women's Board, and Mr. Bell, who advises the Men's Board. For the spring ties chosen by the girls were of a pretty blue plaid, while the boys wore their traditional yellow and white caps. Carol McDowell was elected as Chief Counselor of the Women's Board and Tom Morgan was elected as Chief Counselor of the Men's Board.

The ACORN means different things to different students. To some it is a story of the school year. To others it shows the many school functions in which they can take part.

To the ACORN staff it means working together, having fun, writing copy, and making valuable contacts with students, teachers, and business people. It means staying late to attend to "those little details" and it means the thrill of watching our book grow from a scrap of paper to a book of which we can all be proud. Without the constant help and understanding from Mr. Hallock, our advisor, the ACORN would not mean all the wonderful things it does to our staff.

Just about the busiest people around AHS are those on the OAK LEAF Staff. One can almost always see a student or a teacher blocked in a corner spilling out his life's story to an OAK LEAF reporter.

Carol McDowell, the fall editor, besides producing the paper in the fine standards set before her, added horoscopes which all the students enjoyed. Penny Arbogast, the spring editor, put out equally enjoyable issues. She and her staff also filled the new display case with proofs, layouts and other examples to show what goes on in OAK LEAF during 6th period. Throughout the year, Bud Payne very ably organized the up-to-date sports page which we have read and liked.

Interesting Coverage Of High School Life

This year the OAK LEAF came out approximately once a month. The senior issues were dedicated to the graduating classes of February and June, 1955, and contained six pages in which there was a summary of the OAK LEAF QUESTIONAIRE. This was always fun and gave the members of the senior class more recognition. It is the policy of the staff to get every senior's name in the senior issue. The circulation covers the United States, Hawaii and places overseas. With the help of Miss Powers, the staff works hard to do the many jobs that are needed to publish a school paper. Students enjoy the OAK LEAF for it consists of everything from fads, gossip, and jokes, to sports, school problems, and politics.

Fall Dances Were Gay And Happy Occasions

Co-Manager Carole Moody and Manager Marvin Newell examine publicity banner for fall "Opening Night" dance.

On the afternoon of September 24th the Ad Board was busily preparing for "Opening Nite," the fall Opening Dance. Practically all the bids were sold, the canopy was hung, and the funny decorations of comical Hollywood characters were put up. The Opening Dance at AHS is just about the most popular dance of the term. It is presented by the Ad Board so that the students may become better acquainted. The manager and co-manager are always our A.S.A.H.S. Recording Secretary and Vice-President. Marvin Newell and Carol Moody proved to be very fine managers, for the dance was a huge success.

Carousel, besides selling a record number of bids, stands out as one of the most beautiful proms ever given at Alameda High. The gym on the evening of October 15th was exquisitely decorated. Around the sides of the gym were black silhouetted paintings on a background of pink. A real carousel with pink and white ponies was in the center of the dance floor. The bids were pink miniature carousels accented with glitter and black shiny paper. The evening was a gala affair with the swishing of formals and the murmur of happy voices as the gay couples danced to the music of John Tatum and his band. What could be more thrilling than an evening in such a setting of beauty and gaiety?

With Fond Memories For Those Who Attended

Gay couples dance at the fall Soph Hop "Highland Fling." A record crowd attended the affair.

November 12th proved to be a date to remember; that evening the high sophomore class presented its Soph Hop, "Highland Fling." The Scotch theme was carried out to the last detail in original bids which were light blue with stuffed plaid bagpipes and a skit which featured a Scottish jig. Even the invitations to the patrons and patronesses were contained in a plaid material. The Soph Hop always gives the girls of AHS a chance to ask that "Special Boy" out. At the dance many of the boys were wearing corsages and leis made of everything from candy and gum to radishes and carrots. Many of the girls showed up in plaid skirts to complete the theme of "Highland Fling" with great enthusiasm.

"Hi-Land Fling" breaks all bid sales records. Holding bid are Co-Manager Judy Sabatini and Manager Jim Burress, who helped fellow sophomores present the dance.

Acclaimed As An Outstanding Presentation

The class of June "55" presented its Senior Play, "Too Young, Too Old," on the evenings of October 28th and 29th. It was directed by our unforgettable Mr. Sisler. The entire play takes place in the screened in back porch of the Jordan's summer home. It revolves around Terry Jordan, a typical, all-American teen-age girl who decides that during the summer she will become "the new Terry Jordan," a dashing and sophisticated young woman. She succeeds in catching the interest of Dennis Smalley, the handsome older man, who is all of twenty-one. Her plans are changed, however, when her lovely sister, Phyllis, returns home from the city, unexpectedly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, Grandma, and Terry's friends all add to the comedy and complications of the plot. The play also brings out the snobbishness of a small summer community and the pains Mr. Jordan has in trying to join the country club. Terry regains her high school "steady" and Phyllis and Dennis fall in love. The summer ends, and Terry finds that being a normal teen-age girl isn't so bad after all. The set was designed by Miss Reichmuth.

Mother sticks up for Terry, while father becomes more and more disgusted.

Terry's ankle is accidently sprained, on purpose, and she enjoys the attention received.

Christmas Pageant Was Beautiful Spectacle

Christmas means a Christmas dinner at home, and carolers singing Christmas carols.

Christmas means Bethlehem, the birth of Jesus, and angels hovering near.

One of the most beautiful and interesting Christmas Pageants was presented this year at A.H.S. It was written and directed by Mr. Lloyd Sisler. The exquisite sets, which were designed by Miss Reichmuth and her students, and the lovely costumes, supplied by the sewing classes, added to the splendor of the performance. The superb acting of the cast, the captivating dances by the Modern Dance Club, and the lovely singing of the choir blended together in a brilliant performance which will be long remembered.

The story opens on Christmas Eve in Korea where a group of soldiers find a lost Korean boy. The play centers around the different ideas each man and the Korean boy have of Christmas. Their ideas are in a brilliant and spectacular performance.

Soldiers in Korea explain what Christmas means to each of them While resting from battle.

Christmas means a toy shop where all the toys come to life and dance.

Fall Senior Class Entertains Student Body

Senior hat and sock day is an event for which seniors put their imaginations to work.

Music Departments Add Much Color And Life

The choral groups at Alameda High are under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Lindstrom. They have participated in school activities many times. The members of the choir raised their vocies at the Christmas Pageant and added that final touch of atmosphere to the performance. Many of the choral students have organized their own little groups to sing at various programs at school and other local community functions which is appreciated by all concerned.

To Our School Activities And Presentations

The band and orchestra have lent their services many times to the programs and functions at Alameda High. The band, directed by Mr. Vidler, has played for us at student meetings and added greatly to the spirit and color of basketball and football games. The senior play casts, the operetta, Girls' Association, and others have been very grateful to the orchestra, which is directed by Mr. Hanson, for its help in making many school events successful and more colorful.

Three important units of our R.O.T.C. battalion are the band, the sponsors, and the color guard. The band is ready to play at all formal parades, inspections, and civic programs such as the yearly music festival held at the high school. The sponsors, besides adding color to the formal parades and reviews, have formed one of the few all-girl precision marching units in this area. The girls are selected as sponsors on the basis of their scholastic and personality ratings. The color guard honors our country's flag during parades and football games. They have also acted as honor guard at local civic affairs.

Annual Military Ball Is Brilliant Affair

On January 14th many happy couples embarked on a delightful "Carribean Cruise" when they attended the annual Military Ball. The dancers swayed to the wonderful music of Herb Faulchner and his band. Manager Ronald Blake and co-manager Sandy Morey took great pride in their achievement of making this dance one of the finest and most dazzling affairs held during the school year. Others who contributed a great deal to the success of the dance were the committee chairmen who took exceptional time and care in preparing for the magnificent event. They were: Al King, publicity; Larry Kirwin, decorations; Bob Lofstrand, bids; John Frankland, music; Alex Meloy, reception; and Hank Hughes, refreshments.

Spring Dances Furnish Lively, Wholesome

Manager Bill Mowry and Co-Manager Carol Duncan do an excellent job in planning and staging "Night On The Nile."

On the evening of April 15th, the finished product of the artistic creativeness of the High Juniors was displayed at the spring Junior Prom, "A Night On The Nile." Students, enjoying the exotic atmosphere, danced to the music of Jerry Fee and his band. The Prom, ably managed by Bill Mowry and Carol Duncan with the help of Junior Class Advisor Miss Edna Reichmuth, was one of the most outstanding and lovely dances ever presented at Alameda High.

The Egyptian theme was cleverly and artistically carried out by the very talented High Juniors. The theme captured their imaginations and they put themselves to work making vases and pyramids of paper maché, palm trees, and Egyptian palaces. The bids represented miniature pyramids and were done in beautiful colors. Other exquisite decorations included: Egyptian pictures set completely around the dance floor; several beautiful Egyptian sets, and a huge Sphinx, which was made in three parts, at one end of the floor.

The Juniors publicized their dance by printing several kinds of posters and arranging a clever display in the new showcase in the lobby. The Junior Class was the first class to use the showcase as a means of publicity for a dance or school affair. The preparations for this dance were truly magnificent and the Junior Class deserves a great deal of credit for their excellent work.

Night Life For Students Of Alameda High

Co-Manager Bette Barker and Manager Don Snyder work hard to make their Soph Hop an outstanding affair. Other class members gave them fine support.

The school was "a-buzz" with excitement on the afternoon of May 20. It was the eve of the semi-annual Soph Hop, "Spring Fever." The publicity had gone over with a bang; the bids had sold very well; the decorations were in place; and practically every girl at Alameda High had snagged a boy to take to the traditional girl-ask-boy dance.

The spring theme which was carried out very smartly in bids and decorations added a great deal to the success of the evening. Everyone gave high praise to the managers and committees for their excellent planning and hard work which made the dance a very enjoyable and memorable affair for all who attended.

The spring Opening Dance "Hi Time" was cleverly carried out in a high school life theme. The name "Hi Time" represented "Hello Time" and "Hi Time" for the boys at AHS to get around to asking that "certain" girl to a dance. The bids were long and narrow and done in the school colors of gold and white, while the comical decorations of high school life formed a fitting background for a "get acquainted" dance.

The Opening Dance is planned for the express purpose of giving students the opportunity to become better acquainted with each other and allowing the freshmen to get a glimpse of high school life.

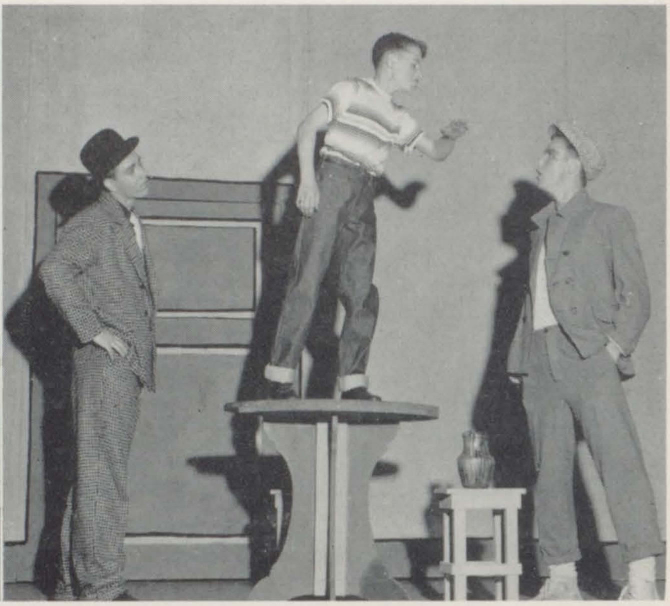
Spring Senior Play, "Mrs. McThing," Wins

Mimi tells the "mob" about her home in the Blue, Blue mountains.



Howay draws himself up to his "full height" to tell Stinker to Shadup!"

On the evenings of March 11th and 12th the class of February '55, under the direction of Mr. Sisler and with the assistance of Mr. Hanson and the orchestra, presented its version of the delightful fantasy and comedy, "Mrs. McThing." The fantastic quality of the play was carried out in sets designed by Miss Reichmuth and her students. The scenery, consisting of two complete settings, was done in shocking colors of pink, black and chartreuse. Family portraits were painted for the Larue home and the Shantyland Poolhall Lunchroom was designed so that the audience could see the inside and outside of the room, as well as the alley.

The story revolves around Mrs. Larue, a wealthy widow, and her son, Howay. Because of Mimi, the daughter of Mrs. McThing (the witch who lives in the Blue, Blue Mountains), Howay and his mother find themselves in the "other end" of town at the Shantyland Poolhall Lunchroom, where Mrs. Larue works as a cleaning woman. Howay becomes affiliated with Stinker, Dirty Joe, and Poison Eddy (the town's roughest, toughest gangsters) and much to his mother's dismay, joins up with the "notorious" mob. Mimi rescues the Larue family, however, and they return home safely. The class of February '55 extends its thanks to freshman Mike Heans for his fine performance as "Howay."

"A Waltz Dream" Is An Enchanting Operetta

The operetta, "A Waltz Dream," a light-hearted musical combined with Viennese music, life and love, was presented on May 12 and 13. The sets, artistically designed by Miss Reichmuth and students, provided the background for the program; while the cast, under the direction of Mr. Sisler and Mrs. Lindstrom, put forth all their effort in singing and acting to make this year's operetta one that will remain in our memory for years to come.

In the operetta, Niki, a lieutenant in the army, is forced by the king to marry the Princess Helene. Helene has many suitors trying to win her heart, but Niki wants no part of this affair, for he is in love with Kay, the young American girl.

Themselves, Their School, Their Community

Each summer representatives from all over California meet in Sacramento to learn more about our state government. Our delegates to Girls' and Boys' State spent two weeks participating in a government patterned after that of California's. The Voice of Democracy contest is sponsored by the Jr. Chamber of Commerce every year. Twelve students from the high schools of Alameda took part. A.H.S. is very proud to have the winner. Our good citizen, who is chosen from the girls of A.H.S., is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. She and the Voice of Democracy winner were eligible for regional competition. Our students always make a fine showing in competition with students from other schools.

Well, the big moment had finally arrived. We had gone to school for eight years in preparation for this important event—Alameda High School. Our first activity in rigging up our class was election of officers. Our president was Jerry Boone and Sandra Morey was vice-president. The other class officers were: Rec. Secretary, Joan Parsons; Fin. Secretary, Janet Hockin; and Yell Leader, Jane Starr.

We finally got used to the rock and roll of things and in our High Freshman term we had a noon movie which made a small profit for us. Our leaders on this cruise were LeRoy Velasquez, Kathy Smith, Sandra Smith, Barbara Barbis, and Jane Starr.

We were now upper lower-classmen. Not much happened this term. Our captains were Bill Gartin, Peggy Lahmann, Nancy Kennady, Rich Harkness, and Joan Parsons.

High Sophomores means a Soph Hop, at last, and one to top all Soph Hops . . . "Coney Island Capers!" Under the command of LeRoy Velasquez and Joan Parsons, we broke all previous records. The chairmen were: Bids, Nancy English; Decorations, Rex Price; Music, Jack Henderson; Publicity, Peggy Lahmann; Refreshments, Nancy Kennady; Reception, Sandi Turner; Skit, Jane Starr. It was a highly successful venture, thanks to our class officers who were: President, Dan Losee; Vice-President, Joan Girdwood; Recording Secretary, Linda Cattran; Financial Secretary, Bill Gartin; and Yell Leader, Janet Hockin.

We were then upper classmen. We voted on colors for Junior sweaters. By peering through the telescope at the stars, we had a glimpse into the future. Head Navigators—Marvin Newell, Nancy Kennady, Mike Devlin, Alex Meloy, and Barbara Barbis.

"Stardust," our great Junior Prom, was launched in our High Junior term and really made a big splash. The manager was Marvin Newell and co-manager was Joan Girdwood. Committee heads were: Bids, Margie Scholz; Decorations, Peggy Lahmann; Music, LeRoy Velasquez; Refreshments, Kathy Smith; Publicity, Nancy English; Reception, Veronica Rueda; Skit, Bud Payne. ior sweaters denoted our new rank. First mates were John Muehlbauer, Linda Cattran, Toni McDonnell, Yvernia Smith, and Gloria Dye.

We were now Low Seniors—a wonderful feeling. "Too Young, Too Old," our hilarious presentation, was a lot of fun for all concerned, whether you were backstage or behind the footlights. The managers of the play were Gary Pauline and Nancy Kennady. Admirals—Jack Henderson, Sandy Smith, Nancy Kennady, Gloria Dye, and Kathy Smith.

High Senioritis had set in! Our ship's commanders were Dan Losee, Nancy Kennady, Kathy Smith, Yvonne Johnson, and Gloria Dye. We announced our new standing by marching into Student Body meeting bedecked in our gorgeous forest green jackets and sweaters. We started planning our senior activities early in the term. Rich Harkness and Mary Ellen Cockrum were in charge of the banquet and John Muehlbauer and Sally Lieber planned the picnic held at Turtle Rock Ranch. Plans were made for the Senior Meeting under the direction of LeRoy Velasquez, Veronica Rueda, and their committee. Manager and co-manager of the Senior Ball, "Beneath the Coral Sea," were Jerry Boone and Nancy English. Some of the chairmen were Margie Scholz, decorations; Ann Galbraith, bids; and Jack May, music. The "underwater" theme was well carried out in the beautiful decorations at the Senior Ball. The contents of the traditional box and the cementing of it and the plaque in front of the school was under the supervision of Colleen Aslin.

It is about time for our ship to hoist anchor and set sail. We hate to leave Alameda High, but there are many foreign ports yet to be seen and many fulfilling experiences awaiting us. Whether there will be stormy weather ahead or clear sailing, one cannot say. But whatever is lurking behind the next horizon, good or bad, we will be ready to meet it and make use of it, thanks to our wonderful teachers and friends who have helped prepare us for our unknown futures. So . . . AU REVOIR and BON VOYAGE!

Come with us on our ship of memories and we will carry you through our past activities and experiences.

The graduating class of February 1956 has worked hard in its three and one-half years at Alameda High. We entered high school in February 1952. In our Low Freshman term we proved that it is a woman's world by electing all girls to the class offices. Our officers were: President, Hope Vaquera; Vice-President, Ethel Rodgers; Recording Secretary, Rebecca Newell; Financial Secretary, Sue Stanton; and Yell Leader, Nancy Davies. On Fun Day we sold candy. Manager Larry Fox and co-manager Sue Stanton worked hard along with the class to make our project profitable.

In January of our High Freshman term we had a successful class movie. We also carried on the tradition of basketball contests in the mornings during long advisory on Wednesdays. As of now, Mrs. Domnick's advisory is the champion. Maybe it will change in our High Senior term. This year we decided to give the boys a chance and we elected one boy to the cabinet. The officers were President, Bert Estes; Vice-President, Joyce Peterson, Recording Secretary, Ethel Rodgers; Financial Secretary, Sally Foppiano; and Yell Leader, Carole Beard.

In our Low Sophomore term we had a terrific class meeting. Those who provided entertainment were Becky Newell, Nancy Davies, Carol Brady, Doug Brenton, and Rich Bullock. The ship captains that term were Jim McDonald, Becky Newell, Sally Foppiano, Larry Fox, and Shirley Levinge.

In our High Sophomore term we gave our Soph Hop "Turnabout." The name and theme of the dance carried out the girl-ask-boy tradition. It was ably managed by Sid Briggs and Joyce Peterson. The committee heads were: Joan Pearson, Bids; Betsy Levering and Judy Newton, Reception; Jim McDonald, Music; Gene Robles, Skit; Irene Fairfield, Publicity; Jim Peterson, Refreshments; John Bridge, Decorations.

In our Low Junior term we had a very entertaining class meeting with exceptional talent. The officers for that term were: President, Rich Bullock, Vice-President, Ethel Rodgers; Recording Secretary, Doug Brenton; Financial Secretary, Judy Newton, and Yell Leader, Jim McDonald.

In our High Junior term we gave our Junior Prom "Carousel." It was a fabulous dance with a real carousel on the dance floor to add atmosphere. The dance was managed by Jim McDonald and Betsy Levering. The committee heads were: Irene Soares, Bids; Bill Carnahan, Music; Sue Stanton, Publicity; Raoul Vega, Refreshments; Sally Foppiano, Reception; Rich Bullock, Skit. The Low Seniors found it necessary to wear sun-glasses to Student Meeting because we were wearing our gorgeous bright red Junior sweaters.

Although our class was small we had more than our share of talent and outstanding personalities. In our Low Senior term we gave our Senior Play, "Mrs. McThing," a satire on gangsters and mothers. Since our class was so small everyone joined in and worked exceptionally hard. Everyone had a job to do whether it was acting behind the foot lights or throwing make-up in someone's face. The play was managed by John Bridge and Betsy Levering. It would be endless to name the cast and the officers and the heads of committees. It is easier to say that everyone worked together for a wonderful production. The officers—Rod Craig, Nancy Davies, Sue Stanton, Kathy Klays, and Al Hugger planned an enjoyable cast party that was a terriffic success.

Our banquet, teas, picnic, and, especially, our Senior Ball are coming up and really give us something to think about and look forward to in our High Senior term. Then there are the other things, such as Senior Hat and Tie Day, Senior Sock Day, and, of course, one of the most important things, our jackets and sweaters. Put all these things together and you come out with a wonderful Senior year and a perfect ending to our high school life. Our ship of memories has come to the present but it is heading for the thrill of final Senior activities.

As Low Juniors, the class of June 1956 was led by Dan Lubbock, who, along with others in the class, came up with the exceptional idea of selling programs for the ACAL championship football game with Piedmont. We held two class meetings and elected Junior sweater managers Dave Middlesworth and Marie DeVries. Royal blue was chosen for the color of our sweaters.

President Ron Dahl and our High Junior class were faced with one of the most outstanding social events of the term — the Junior Prom. We decided upon "Night On The Nile," which was very ably managed by Bill Mowery and Carol Duncan. Our title furnished us with an excellent theme for very original decorations and very outstanding bids and skit. We now look forward to our final, but very active year in high school life — our Senior year.

Jim Buress and Judy Sabatini were elected manager and co-manager. They chose their committee chairmen: Reception, Joan Camisa; Bids, Brenda Hanson; Music, Dave Eppler; and Decorations, Steve Hooper. They worked hard and broke all previous sales records.

This term, Mike Prado had as his crew vice-president, Judy Sabatini; recording secretary, Chuck Morehouse; financial secretary, Doug Millett; and yell leader, Angelo Perata. They, along with the class, decided to have a cupcake sale which went over well. We now are ready for our big social event next term — our Junior Prom.

We entered our second term of high school with Ray Sheriff giving us a successful class meeting filled with good ideas and exceptional entertainment. One of our ideas was to have a noon dansant on the last Wednesday before Christmas vacation. It was called "T'was The Dance Before Christmas." This proved to be a financial success and made it possible for us to have a good Soph Hop in the spring term.

This past term we held our Soph Hop which was well managed by Manager Don Snyder and Co-manager Bette Barker. This dance was really a smash, socially and financially. This was due to the help of the chairmen and their committees. The chairmen were Rich Hoisington, Palmer Moody, John King, Sue Longaker, Judy Hart, and Ann Roesh. Dan Rueda, our president, presided over the class meetings held for the purpose of discussing our Soph Hop.

As High Freshmen, we had a class meeting with Wayne Stanley at the helm. At our class meeting we discovered that we had some talent. We talked about a noon dance. After discussing the affair, we decided to call it "Flight of the 1B's.'" The dance, held in the gym, proved to be a social and financial success. We were well under way in high school.

We are Low Sophomores now and have had a class meeting for the purpose of discussing another noon dance. We held our meeting on March 16, 1955, leaving us two weeks until our 2A social event on March 30. We called it "Come 2A Dansant." President Gail Andrus was ably assisted by her cabinet and many members of the class. This dance, again, proved to be a success, both socially and financially. We are looking ahead to bigger things.

We entered Alameda High last September with bright shining hopes. We started class activities by electing Bob Powell to the office of president and Patt Strickler as vice-president. We had a class meeting which was very entertaining. After a lot of discussion, we decided to have a noon dansant which proved to be a success.

When we became high freshmen, we elected Fritz Jager to the presidency with Sue Byrne as vice-president. We had a class meeting which everyone enjoyed. At this meeting we decided to have another noon dansant. This also proved to be a huge success, both socially and financially.

We can be quite proud of our class. We have been active in athletics and have attended games and school activities. We are intent upon having a class which will measure up to the best traditions of Alameda High. Steady performance in supporting all class and student body activities will help us achieve this goal.

We, the class of February 1959, entered high school last February, and were a little frightened and mystified by our new world. We proved ourselves worthy of high school when we were one of the first classes to be 100% for student dues. We held a political convention before class elections so that we could become better acquainted. We elected Bill Grafe to lead us. We breezed through our first class meeting. Its purpose was to discuss having a cupcake sale later in the term. The sale proved to be a money maker.

We now look ahead to other school activities and social events. We have forgotten about the swimming pool on the fifth floor and the elevator. Success is the goal for all of us.

Star And Key Society Fosters Good Fellowship

The Star and Key has the largest club membership in Alameda High. A "B" average in all subjects is necessary before a student can join the organization.

The Star and Key Society is the oldest honor society at Alameda High. The club is proud of its record maintained in membership enrollment because it has one of the largest clubs at school. In order to help fulfil the club's purpose of service to the school and promotion of good fellowship, a student loan fund is maintained. This fund may be used by clubs or students if they prove themselves in need of help. Interesting meetings were held throughout the year. After a fine Christmas party the club attended a basketball game. All members including Mrs. Smith, the club adviser, enjoyed a year of fun.

They have lived up to this motto in showing the new freshmen around, greeting visitors to the school, acting as hostesses at various affairs, and giving service to the school and its students whenever possible.

In the fall term a lamp shade was presented to the school for the lamp in the lobby. Light blue ties were worn in the fall term, and pink was the color which adorned the girls' blouses in the spring. Spare time in the spring semester was spent in making new name tabs for teachers' doors. The whole school appreciates the services of this wonderful group.

In planning the various activities of the G.A., the officers keep the purpose of the Association in mind—"To create common interest among the girls at A.H.S." The fall cabinet chose ties of white taffeta with red polka dots. The freshman girls were encouraged by their senior sisters to look forward to "New Horizons," the theme of the reception. The theme of the bi-annual fashion show was "You And Your Reflections." A cake sale closed the term.

After choosing their ties, white taffeta with little red apples, the spring cabinet presented the Freshman Reception, "Getting To Know You," following a school days theme. One of the highlights of the term was the fashion show, "Splashes Of Spring." The traditional cake sale was held at the end of the term and proved to be a big success.

The breaking of the Pinata at the Spanish Club Christmas Party causes a mad scramble for candy which it contained.

A successful cup cake sale at noon started off the year's activities. The club meetings, which were all well attended, provided plenty of fun and interest. At the Christmas party the breaking of the "piñata" added thrills for all. A fashion show was presented at the last meeting of the fall semester and the various Spanish costumes brought forth much laughter and gaiety. A fifty dollar scholarship was given to Carla Geraghty, on her graduation, for maintaining exceptionally high grades in Spanish for four years.

The high-light of the Spring semester was a banquet at the Casa del Rancho restaurant where Spanish food and entertainment were enjoyed. A cake sale brought the club's activities to a close.

The Spanish Club's large membership indicates the great popularity of the club and its interesting activities.

Members of the French Club put on an interesting skit and fashion show at one of their entertaining meetings.

The French Club has had many interesting meetings under presidents Doyle and Murray in this past year. A skit and fashion show of "French styles" were given for entertainment in the fall semester. At the Christmas meeting the members sang many of the well known Christmas Carols in French. A joint meeting with the Encinal High French Club gave members a chance to compare notes on the two clubs. Alameda High was the picture of spring on the day that the French Club gave its annual flower sale. Miss Paul is the advisor behind all these activities. With such a well organized, interesting, and enthusiastic group, the reason for so large a membership is obvious.

The large enrollment of the French Club helps it to offer good entertainment to its members.

At the beginning of the fall term the Jr. Red Cross cleared over four hundred dollars from its annual drive. One hundred dollars was sent to each of the countries of Korea, India, Greece, and Pakistan. To cheer the patients at Oak Knoll Hospital during the yule season, the members made and decorated miniature Christmas trees and sang carols for happy recipients. Men at Parks Air Force Base were presented with candy-filled green top hats for Saint Patrick's Day. Trade favors for the Fourth of July were in the shape of small firecrackers which were filled with candy. To climax a year of service to others, members of the Jr. Red Cross and their sponsor, Miss Wann, went ice skating.

In the fall semester the Photography Society presented two snappy Walt Disney comedies at noontime to raise funds for club activities. Late in January, club members went to the top of Mt. Diablo and had a grand time in the snow. Some unusual pictures of fog and rock formations were taken.

The Spring semester was a parade of interesting activities. A field trip to Lake Anza was made in March and club members who attended got some fine shots of the surrounding scenery. Mrs. Cossette's room became a picture gallery for the photography contseset during the last week of April and the winner received fine prizes. A hike and picture taking spree at Devil's Punch Bowl ended a very active year.

The Forensic Club, known by most people as a public speaking club, was organized by students who were endeavoring to conquer their fear when speaking before an audience. Participation in contest, panels, and discussion has been open to members and has given them much valuable experience.

It is still a small club; but as the years pass we hope it will grow so that Alameda High can provide keener competition in the many forensic tournaments in the bay area. Thanks to Colleen Aslin, several trophies were brought home this year which gives the club a start on the road to success.

R.O.T.C. Clubs Add Zest To Army Life

The Sword and Shield Club has made a fresh start this year with the help of our new advisor, Captain Graves. Among the year's activities were: the Military Ball; the R.O.T.C. cake sale, and the annual picnic at Golden Gate Park in May. The picnic was enjoyed by all members who attended.

Alameda High School girls with outstanding ability and interest in sports make up the membership of the Women's Block A Society. To help promote school spirit and enthusiasm this past term the society held a highly successful pom-pom and decal sale. A progressive dinner, which consists of several courses served at different girls' homes, was held to welcome and formally accept the incoming members. Also at this time the new officers were installed and graduating members were honored. This year the society was sponsored by Mrs. O. Braun whose help and advice contributed greatly to a very successful and interesting year which was enjoyed by all members of the society.

Lake Anza was the site chosen for the annual spring picnic and all members were very enthusiastic in their accounts of the event. Seventeen new membres were initiated to bring the active membership to forty-six athletes.

Alameda High has won its first ACAL football championship since entering the league thirty-four years ago. The Alameda Varsity has come close to the championship in past seasons, but this year the Hornets were not to be denied. Under the very exceptional coaching of Mr. Butler, the Varsity defeated team after team to bring home the coveted prize.

High team spirit, determination to win, and the brilliant playing which characterizes a champion was evident from the very first game. The offensive line opened gaping holes in the opposing lines and allowed our stampeding backs to pour into the secondary. Long gains were the rule and time after time our fast, deceptive backs went all the way to the goal line. The hard charging Hornet defensive team did its part by throttling the opposing offensive teams and holding their gains to a minimum.

A tense moment is experienced by coaches and players on sidelines during football game.

Championship In Dazzling Display Of Power

The Varsity not only played like champions, but they conducted themselves like champions on and off the field. The excellent team cooperation and spirit, the fine sportsmanship, and the hard, but clean play are a great tribute, not only the players themselves, but also to our outstanding coaching staff. Head coach Chuck Butler, line coach Calder Hayes, and chief scout and backfield coach Sam DeVito deserve a great deal of credit for fine work.

Coach Butler turned out some fine college potentials, such as Alan Happe who will make Stanford coaches quite happy. Another is Chuck Butler who far surpassed the other quarterbacks of the league. Dick Childs, a fleet fullback, will also attend Stanford. Murdock, a hard running halfback, was a key man in downing Berkeley for the first time since 1942. Irv Nikolai, a sensational end, caught some seemingly impossible passes. When a couple of yards were needed for a first down, Charles Thornton was called upon to get them and he did. Thornton was elected by his teammates to receive the Most Valuable Player Award. Don Kennady, Al Hoffmann, Jerry Sparks, Jim Reynolds, Dick Gray, and Bob Sheriff were some "hustling" linemen who placed on the All ACAL Teams. Butler, Childs, Happe, and Nikolai were named on the All Northern California Teams, in addition to being chosen for the All ACAL Team.

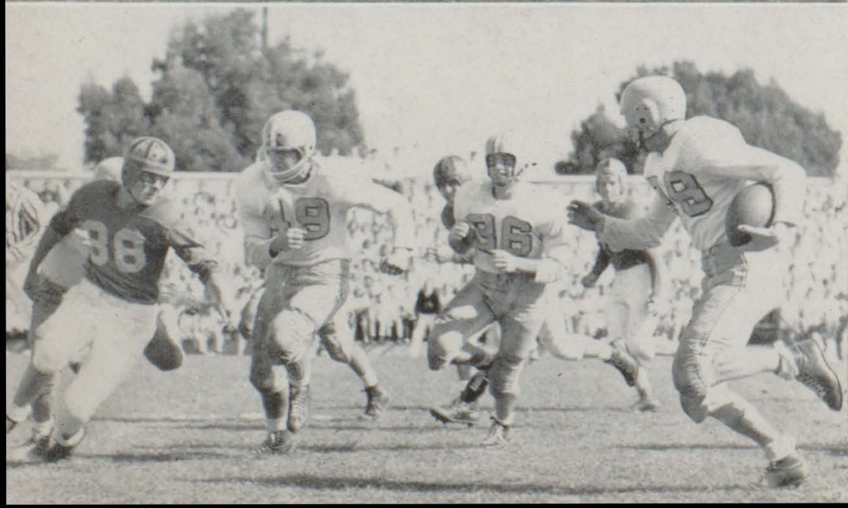
Dick Childs (36) breaks away in the Richmond game for a nice gain as Dick Gray (30) blocks a Richmond man out of the play. Alameda defeated Richmond in an exciting game by the score of 33 to 21.

Charles Thornton crashes into the Mt. Diablo secondary while Alan Happe puts on one of his terrific blocks. Alameda ran all over the Red Devils at their stadium to the tune of 26 to 66.

Jesse Murdock, All ACAL half-back, smashes over the Richmond goal line for six points and Bert Estes comes up fast to block Richmond man if needed. This was one of Alameda's toughest games.



Charles Thornton, with ball, is out in the open on one of his flashy runs. Leading the interference for Thornton are Alan Happe (49) and Dick Childs (36). Alameda took this game from Fremont by the score of 31 to 19.

Alan Happe shows perfect blocking technique which helped Alameda to win crown.

A typical dressing room scene after a tough practice session.

All Northern California full-back, Dick Childs, is tackled by El Cerrito man after a substantial gain. Childs collected 30 points in this game.

Irv Nikolai, All ACAL end, sprints for the goal line after catching a pass in the Hayard game. Alameda dropped this one 20 to 21.

The Junior Varsity Hornets brought more football glory to Alameda High by winning the championship in their division with the first undefeated season in JV history. Sam DeVito, who also coached the Varsity backfield, did a splendid job in guiding these boys to top football honors. Standouts on this fine team were: Mike Prado, Bud Cronenwett, Dan Rueda, Bob Parker, and Chuck Morehouse. We can certainly look forward to another great Varsity squad next fall.

Varsity Hoopsters Show Fight And Hustle

The law of averages finally caught up with the Varsity basketball team after two successive ACAL championships. Coach Jones was unable to come up with another winning combination, but he was very successful in fielding a group of fighting, hustling hoopsters. Although the basket was a very elusive target for our players at times, the spectators were thrilled time after time by the fight and determination shown by our team. But as the season progressed, the other league members were able to get their revenge on the Hornets for previous pastings. In the league tangles, the Varsity came out on top five times out of the fourteen games played. In seasonal play the Hornets were victorious seven times.

High point man on this year's squad was Eugene Raines, a veteran from last year's champs. He was followed closely by Dick Bonino. Denny Miles turned in a fine winning performance against San Lorenzo when he scored 28 points. Jesse Murdock, Chuck Butler, Jack Henderson, and Franklin Carroll made fine showings. Returning lettermen are Dave Middlesworth, Mike McCutcheon, Bill Thomas.

Coach Jones plans strategy with his varsity during time out. Jones has guided his teams to several championships.

Dick Bonino, probably the peppiest member of the team, freezes the ball in mid-air during a game with Berkeley High.

Mike McCutcheon scores for Alameda High.

Mad scramble for the ball in Berkeley game.

The fast action shots shown below were typical of the type of game played by the Hornets. Although not a high scoring outfit, the players didn't stop fighting until the last whistle sounded.

JV Basketball Team Plays Fast Action Games

The Alameda High Junior Varsity Basketball team record for the season was eight games won against 14 games lost. The team started the season with a very young and inexperienced group of sophomores and freshmen who gradually developed into a smooth, well organized unit as the season ended. The starting five at the end of the season was composed of Don Means and Jim Neave at the forward posts, Eddie Evans and David Neave at guards, and Don Bell at center. Many returning lettermen can look forward to a very strong season next fall. "Stretch" Pearson has done a fine job of coaching.

The high school band helps keep student spirit high with stirring music.

Enthusiastic rooters yell for their team until the last whistle has sounded.

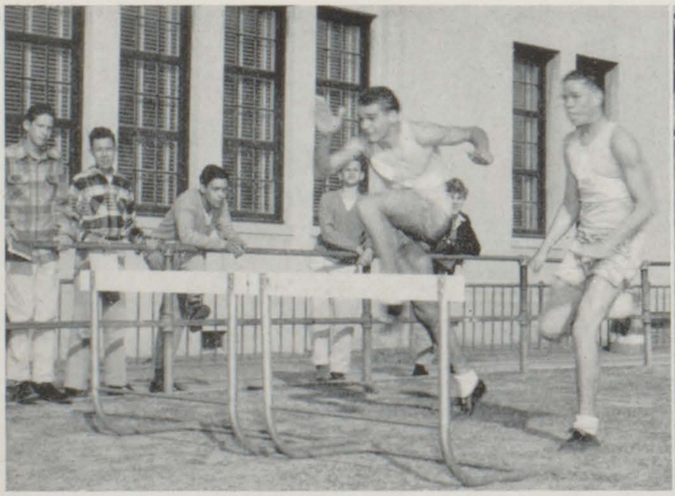
Varsity Cindermen Show Great Promise

The varsity track team, although defending State Champion, does not expect to provide serious competition for the state title again this year. However, the team should do well in ACAL and North Coast competition.

Despite losing the entire State Championship team, Coach Jolley has many fine potential stars. Kenneth Jett, 880 man, threatens the school record whenever he runs. Lamont Alston, former 880 contender, now runs the 440. Wesley Hyde continues to improve in the broad jump and high jump, while Len Nikolai skims the hurdles like a veteran. James Catlett, Huey Hunter, and Bob Parker are fine sprinters. Roy Andriese, Al Hoffmann, and Jerry Sparks are consistent weight men. Other point makers include: Ray Pugh, 440; Deane Magers, 880; Russell Reed, mile; Terry Weldon, pole vault; Del Lewis, high jump; Don Bell, weightman.

Nikolai and Cronenwett run the low hurdles in good high school time.



Coach Jolley uses starting blocks to help get his runners off to a fast start.

FRONT ROW—J. Cooper, F. Jager, R. Dahl, J. Burress, D. Millett, S. Tilton, C. Patino. SECOND ROW—J. King, W. Andrews, B. Fairey, L. Wilson, B. Scholz, D. Healy, D. Hess, E. Suman, L. Wells. THIRD ROW—G. Beardsley, P. Skarrup, J. Patrick, R. Dobbins, J. Cunningham, R. Mulkin, S. Hooper, R. Sheriff, C. Carnahan, Coach Butler.

Coach Butler's JV track team lists a host of future greats. After a slow start the JV's should do well in late season competition. Outstanding figures on the team are: Bob Scholz, 150 and 330 yd. dashes; John Cunningham, 75 yd. dash and pole vault; Ed Suman, who has broken the school 1320 yd. record; Ron Dahl, a colorful hurdler; Charles Patino, sophomore hurdler; Don Hess, a consistent 660 yd. man; John King, discus thrower; James Patrick, high jumper and broad jumper; and Rod Mulkin and Doug Healy, promising distance men. There are many fine competitors on this squad.

Our Defending State Champions At Practice

Pole vaulter Terry Weldon soars over the cross-bar set at ten feet. Terry is constantly threatening the school record.

Len Nikolai goes over a high hurdle in a practice run. Nikolai is rapidly developing into a first-rate hurdler.

Wesley Hyde, holder of two school records, takes off in the broad jump. Wes is also a fair high jumper.

Varsity Baseball Team Favored To Take Title

This year's Hornet baseball team looks good, in fact, they may go all the way to a championship. We have the best hitting team in the league, which is ably coached by Calder Hayes. Baseball prospects at Alameda High haven't looked this good for five years. The strong hitters include Joe Wilson, Syl Hunter, Herb Lowery, Chuck Butler, and Jesse Murdock.

The boys, to this date, have downed seven out of the eight teams played. League play has not begun at this date, but it is quite certain that Coach Hayes' boys will make a fine showing.

Coach Hayes reports that the only weakness of this hard-hitting team is the pitching department. Those showing improvement in this category are Rich Bullock, Chris Greig, and Dan Lubbock. The outfield consists of right fielder Syl Hunter, who is the team's best hitter; Joe Wilson, centerfielder; and Dan Rueda at left-field. The infield starters are Chuck Butler at third; shortstop, Ken Narhara; Herb Lowery on second; and Dean Carmichael at first-base .The catching department consists of two able boys, Jesse Murdock and Chet Plomgren. A strong JV team will help to keep Varsity baseball prospects bright for several years to come.

Some of the teams Alameda has already downed are the University of California Frosh, Mission High of San Francisco, Oakland High, Bellarmine High, McClymonds High, San Leandro High, and Alameda High's Alumni. Alameda High fell only to St. Ignatius of San Francisco.

JV Baseball Team Sparkles In League Play

The Junior Varsity baseball team, coached by Sam DeVito, is a clever fielding and heavy hitting squad. To date, they have won five of their six games. Schools which have yielded to the spectacular play of the JV's are: Oakland, Bellarmine, San Leandro, Encinal, and Fremont. Mission of San Francisco holds the only win over our team. Sluggers who keep the other team chasing hits are: Angelo Perata, left fielder; Mike Prado, center fielder; Don Snyder, right fielder; Gary Rocke, shortstop; and Larry Rocke, second baseman. This team is sure to win top honors if they continue at their present pace.

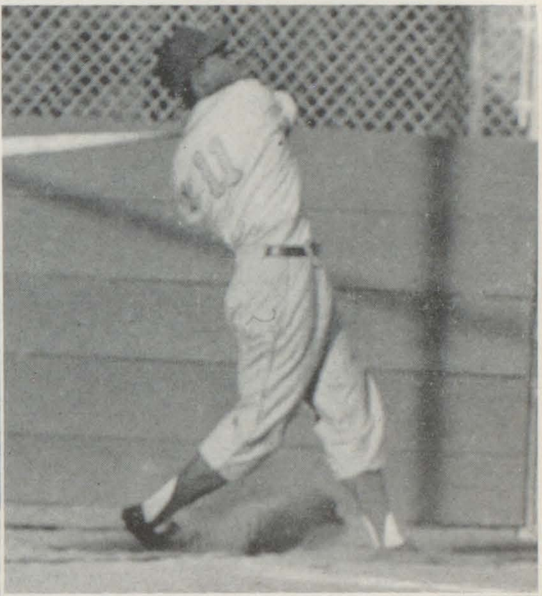
Junior Varsity players field "hot bounders" in a warm up before time.

Baseball Action Shots In Team Competition

Catcher Jesse Murdock backs up Dean Carmichael in play at first base.

Joe Wilson, at bat, swings and misses.



Opposing player scampers back to first as Alameda men put on pressure.

Varsity Net Team Offers Tough Competition

Alameda High tennis teams have always produced fine players. Coach Jones reports that this year should be no exception with three experienced lettermen returning from last year's hustling team; Jack Bosch, the number one man, has shown great improvement and should provide stiff competition this year. Jerry Healey, in the number two position, is playing a good, steady, game. Jerry and his brother, Peter, were the ACAL double champions last year. The number three spot is held down by Ken Kofman who is a great defensive player. The remaining positions are being fought for by new squad members: Bill Staude, Ed Entrician, Chuck Whitechurch, Cliff Schroeder, Ralph Bohn, and Dick Woudstra. Team prospects look very promising at this time.

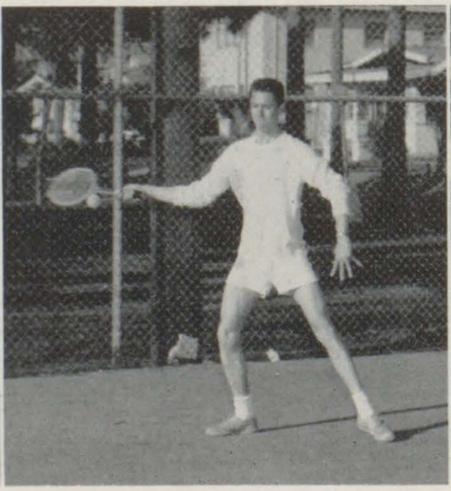
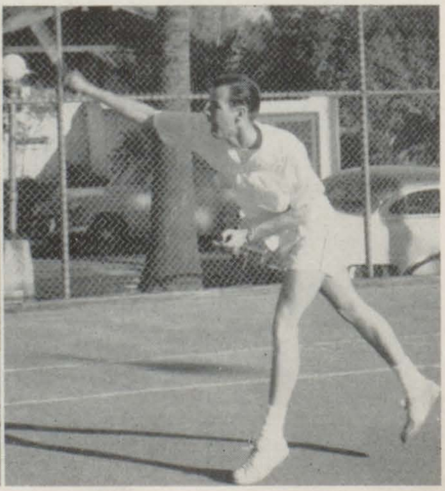
Jack Bosch, number one man, displays a good forehand in a practice session.



Jerry sends the ball back across the net with fine forehand smash.



Alameda Golfers Make Fine League Showing

John Conroy, number one man on the golf squad, shows the form which enables him to stay on top.

Don Yeltman, number two man, tees off with a lusty swing. Good form is very essential for good golf.

The golf team, coached by Chuck Butler, has been working hard in preparation for four scheduled tournaments. All seven teams that play in the league play in each of the tournaments which are held at some of the most popular golf courses in the area. These include: Richmond Golf Course, Claremont Golf Course, Alameda Golf Course, and Mira Vista Golf Course. At the date of this writing, the team has participated in one match which was lost to San Lorenzo by the narrow margin of one point.

The number one man on the team is John Conroy who has shown good form in practice. The number two spot is held by Fred Tomlin, who is closely pressed by Bill Hopfer, number three man.

ROTC Rifle Team Displays Fine Marksmanship

The R.O.T.C. rifle team has been very consistent in maintaining one of the sharpest shooting high school teams in the nation. This year's team is following along in fine traditional style, which is shown by the results of the regional match sponsored by the U.S. Sixth Army in January. Alameda proved her superiority over other high schools in the bay Area by winning this match rather handily. We are sure that our sharp-shooters will give a good account of themselves at the University of San Francisco Invitational Rifle Match which will be held later in the spring term.

The most difficult position to fire is the off-hand or standing position. Firing, left to right, are: Jerry Boone, Walt Jacobs, Leslie Coler-Dark, and John Frankland.

Modern Dance Is Steadily Gaining Popularity

Dance patterns, consisting of leaps and individual interpretation to the rhythm of music, make up modern dance. This popular and enjoyable activity is under the unequalled instruction of Mrs. Braun. Modern Dance students have taken part in many school functions and programs outside school.

G.A.A. Is Very Exclusive Group Of Girls

The G.A.A. is composed only of girls who are enrolled in sixth period P.E. These exclusive classes offer many special sports which can not be enjoyed in regular P.E. classes. Some sports are held away from school such as: bowling, crew, and roller-skating. The girls work for their circle, wings, and Block A's on a point system. These awards are presented at the annual G.A.A. spread.

The Girls' Athletic Association Always

Bowling is one of the most popular sports offered, especially, when the number of strikes is high.

Tumbling provides fine exercises in coordination and balance.

Girls' basketball provides thrills and excitement for the players.

Girls become expert at applying bandages in first-aid classes.

Speed-a-way is one of the fastest and most active of girls' sports.

Offers A Wide Variety Of Special Sports

Girls who participate in riflery prove that they can handle guns in a very effective and efficient manner.

"Play ball" is a very familiar phrase during the spring term.
